

John Sherman
Chief Development Officer
Catholic Vote

We are excited to announce that our 2024 speaker is John Sherman! John serves as the Chief Development Officer of CatholicVote. The mission of CatholicVote is to inspire every Catholic in America to live out the truths of the faith in public life. With 2024 a key election year, this is a timely topic as who is voted in will determine much in the coming years. Catholic Charities experienced significant impact to programs in 2023 because of the elections in Pennsylvania. It is more important than ever to know the candidates.

As a husband and father of four sons, John is deeply concerned about the culture being passed onto his children and future generations. He believes strongly that we must passionately proclaim and defend our Catholic beliefs in public if we want to continue to live them.

Prior to getting involved in Catholic ministry, John had a long career in financial services, holding leadership positions at T. Rowe Price, Bank of America, and MetLife. John is a convert to Catholicism and has shared his conversion story with Marcus Grodi on EWTN's The Journey Home and with Gus Lloyd on the SiriusXM radio show, Seize the Day.
